

The Cooperative Program
helps churches accomplish more together than they could alone.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

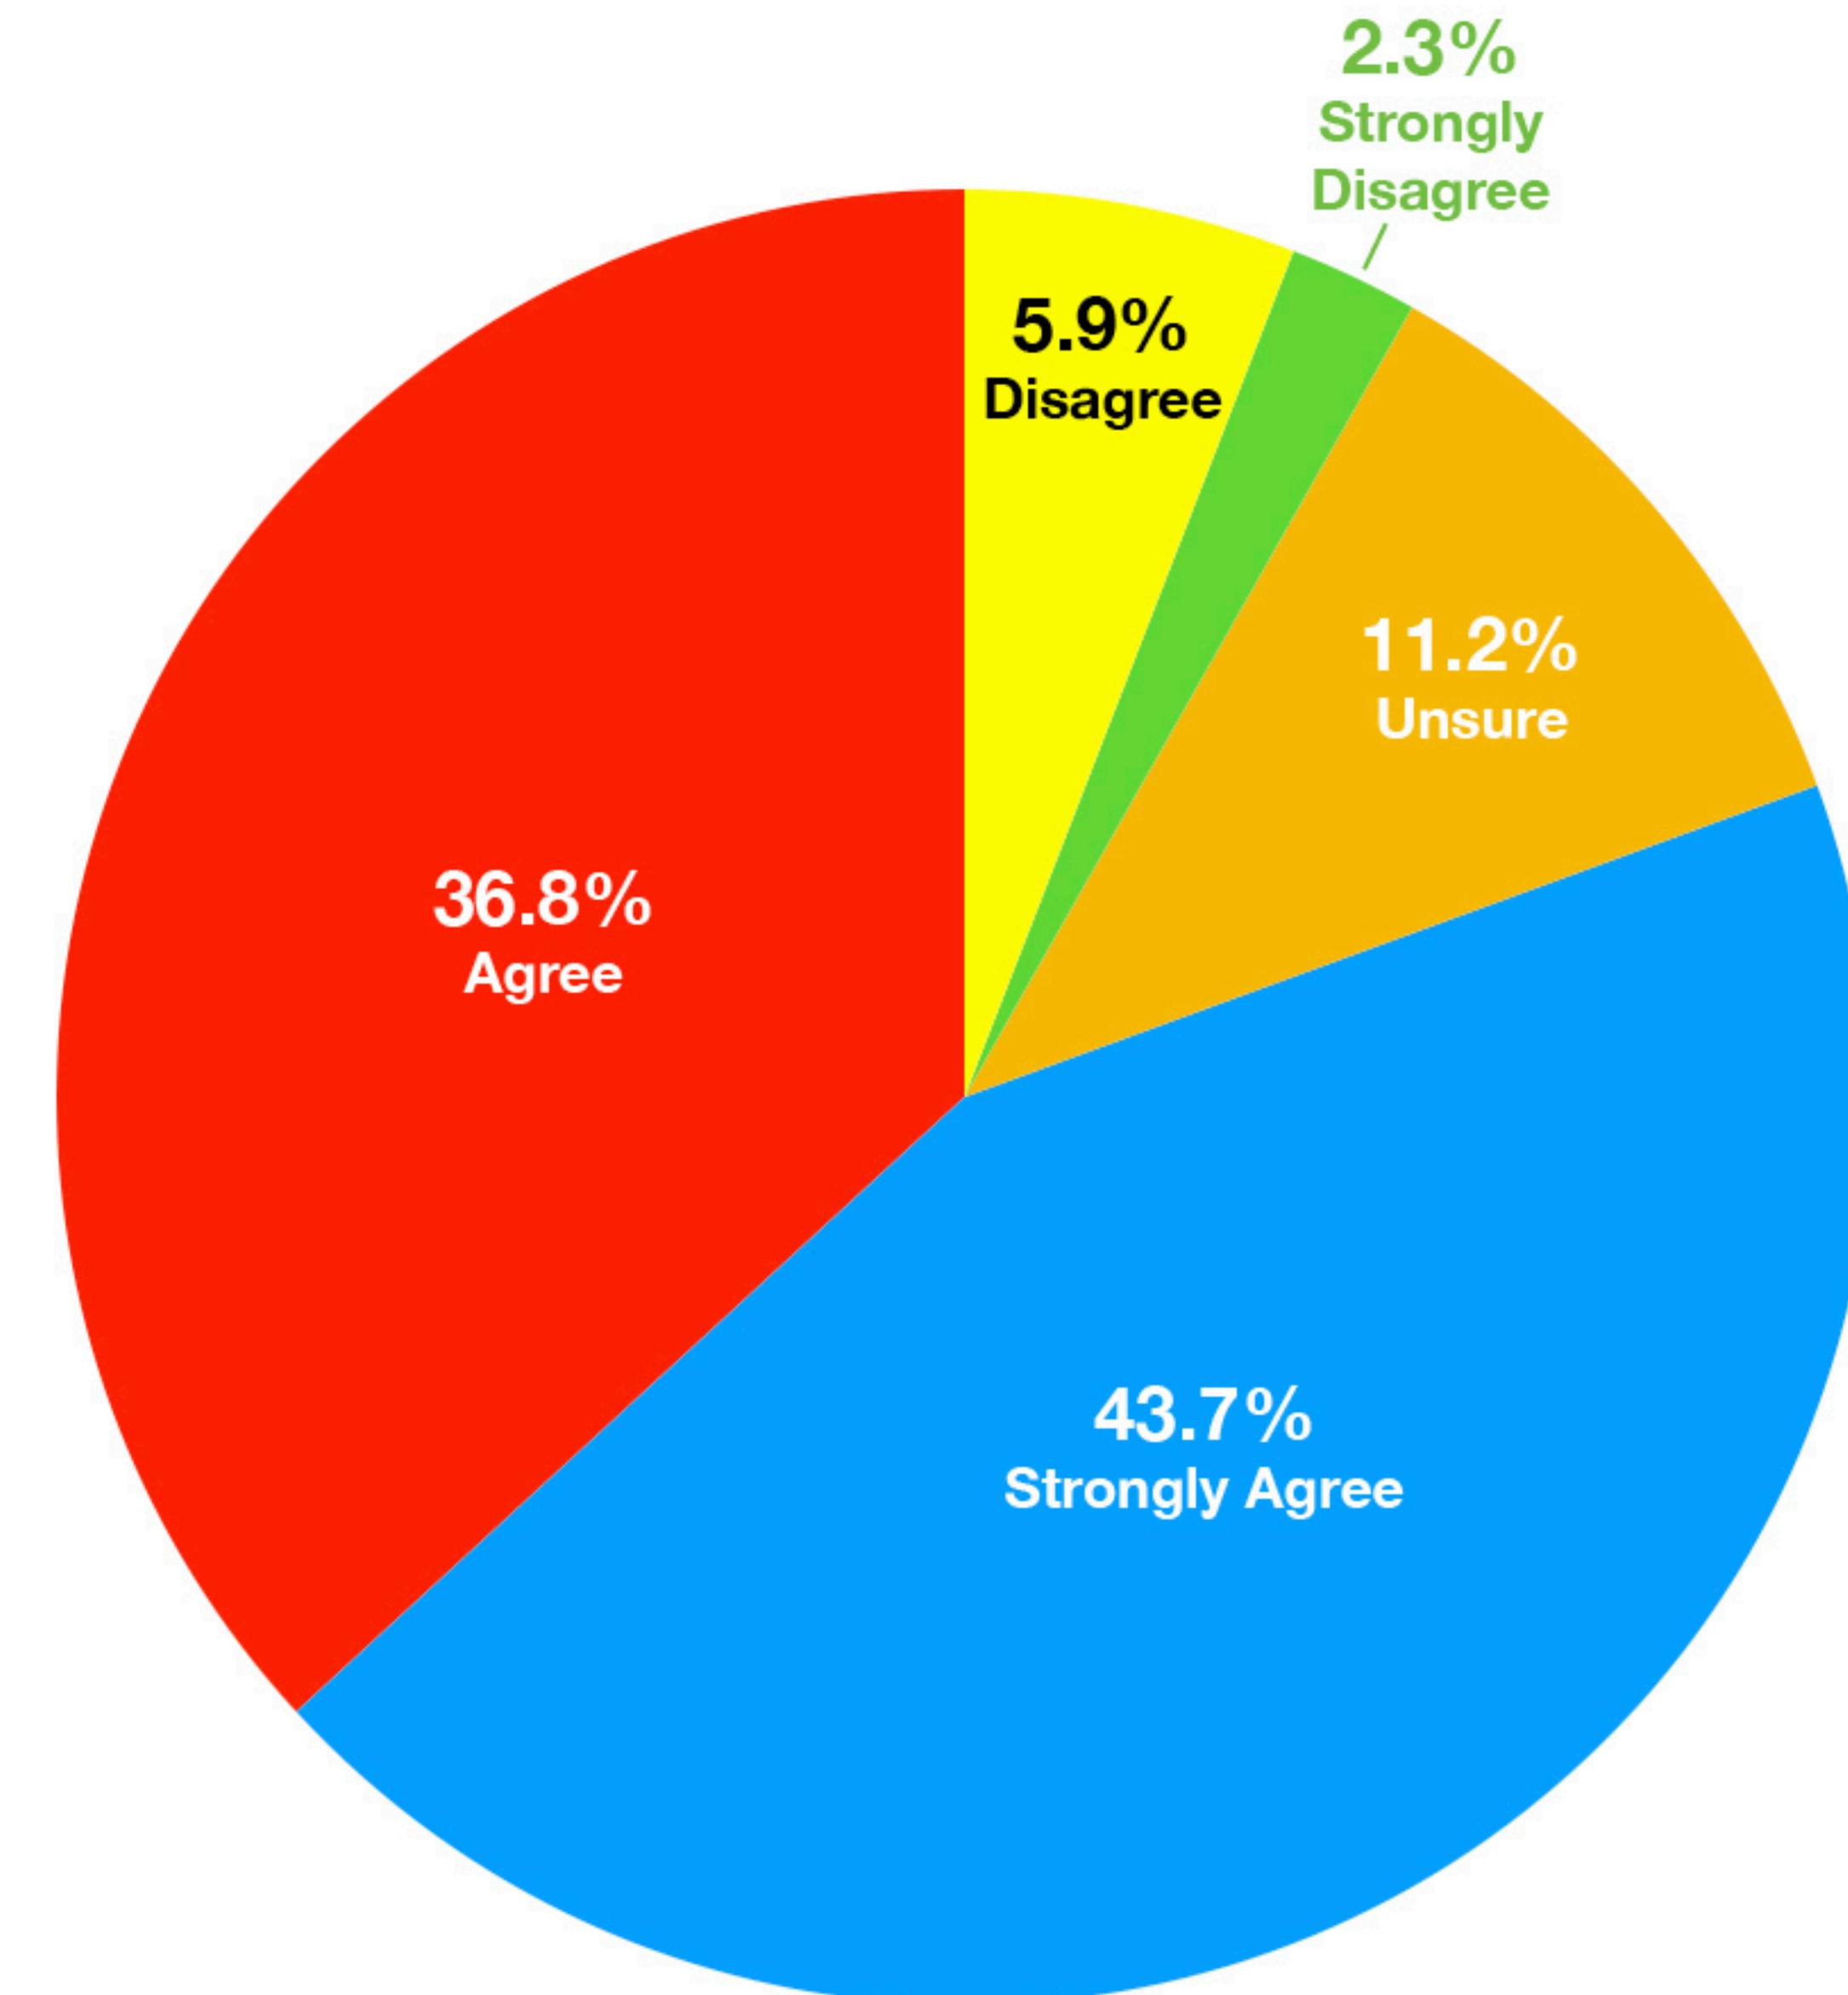

A decline in CP participation would hurt missions and ministry effectiveness.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

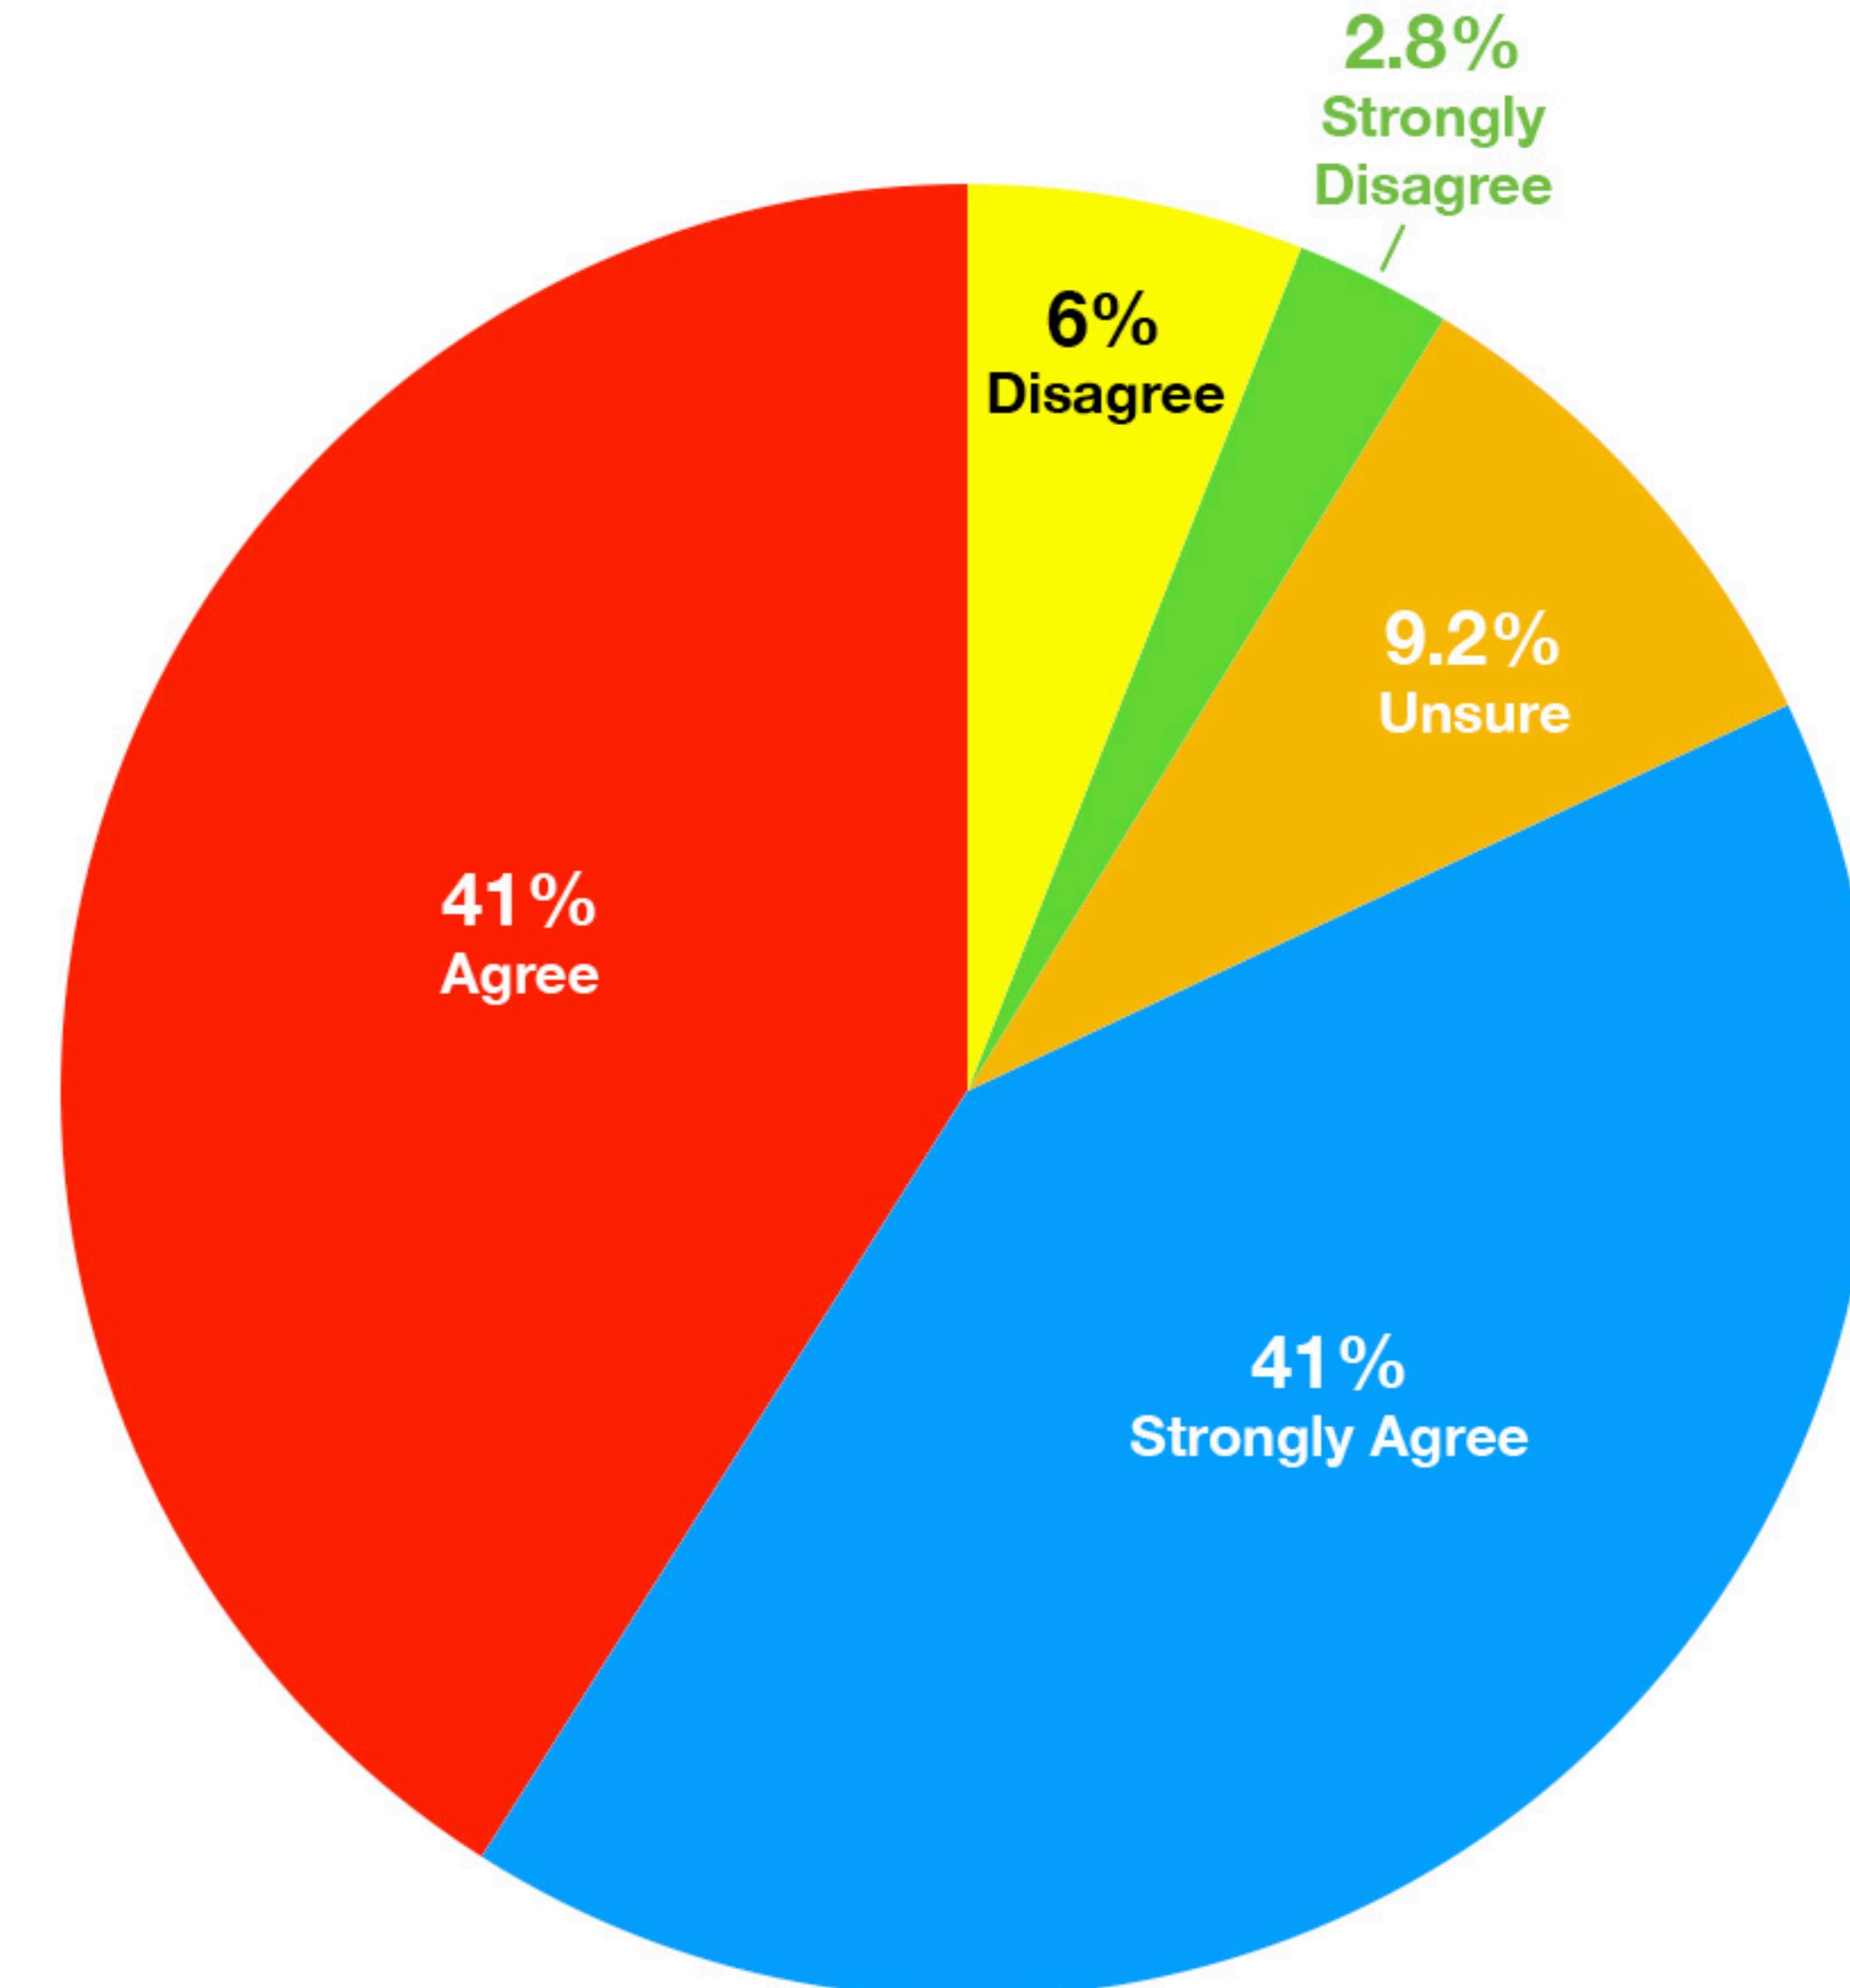

Have you personally seen positive results from ministries funded through the Cooperative Program?

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

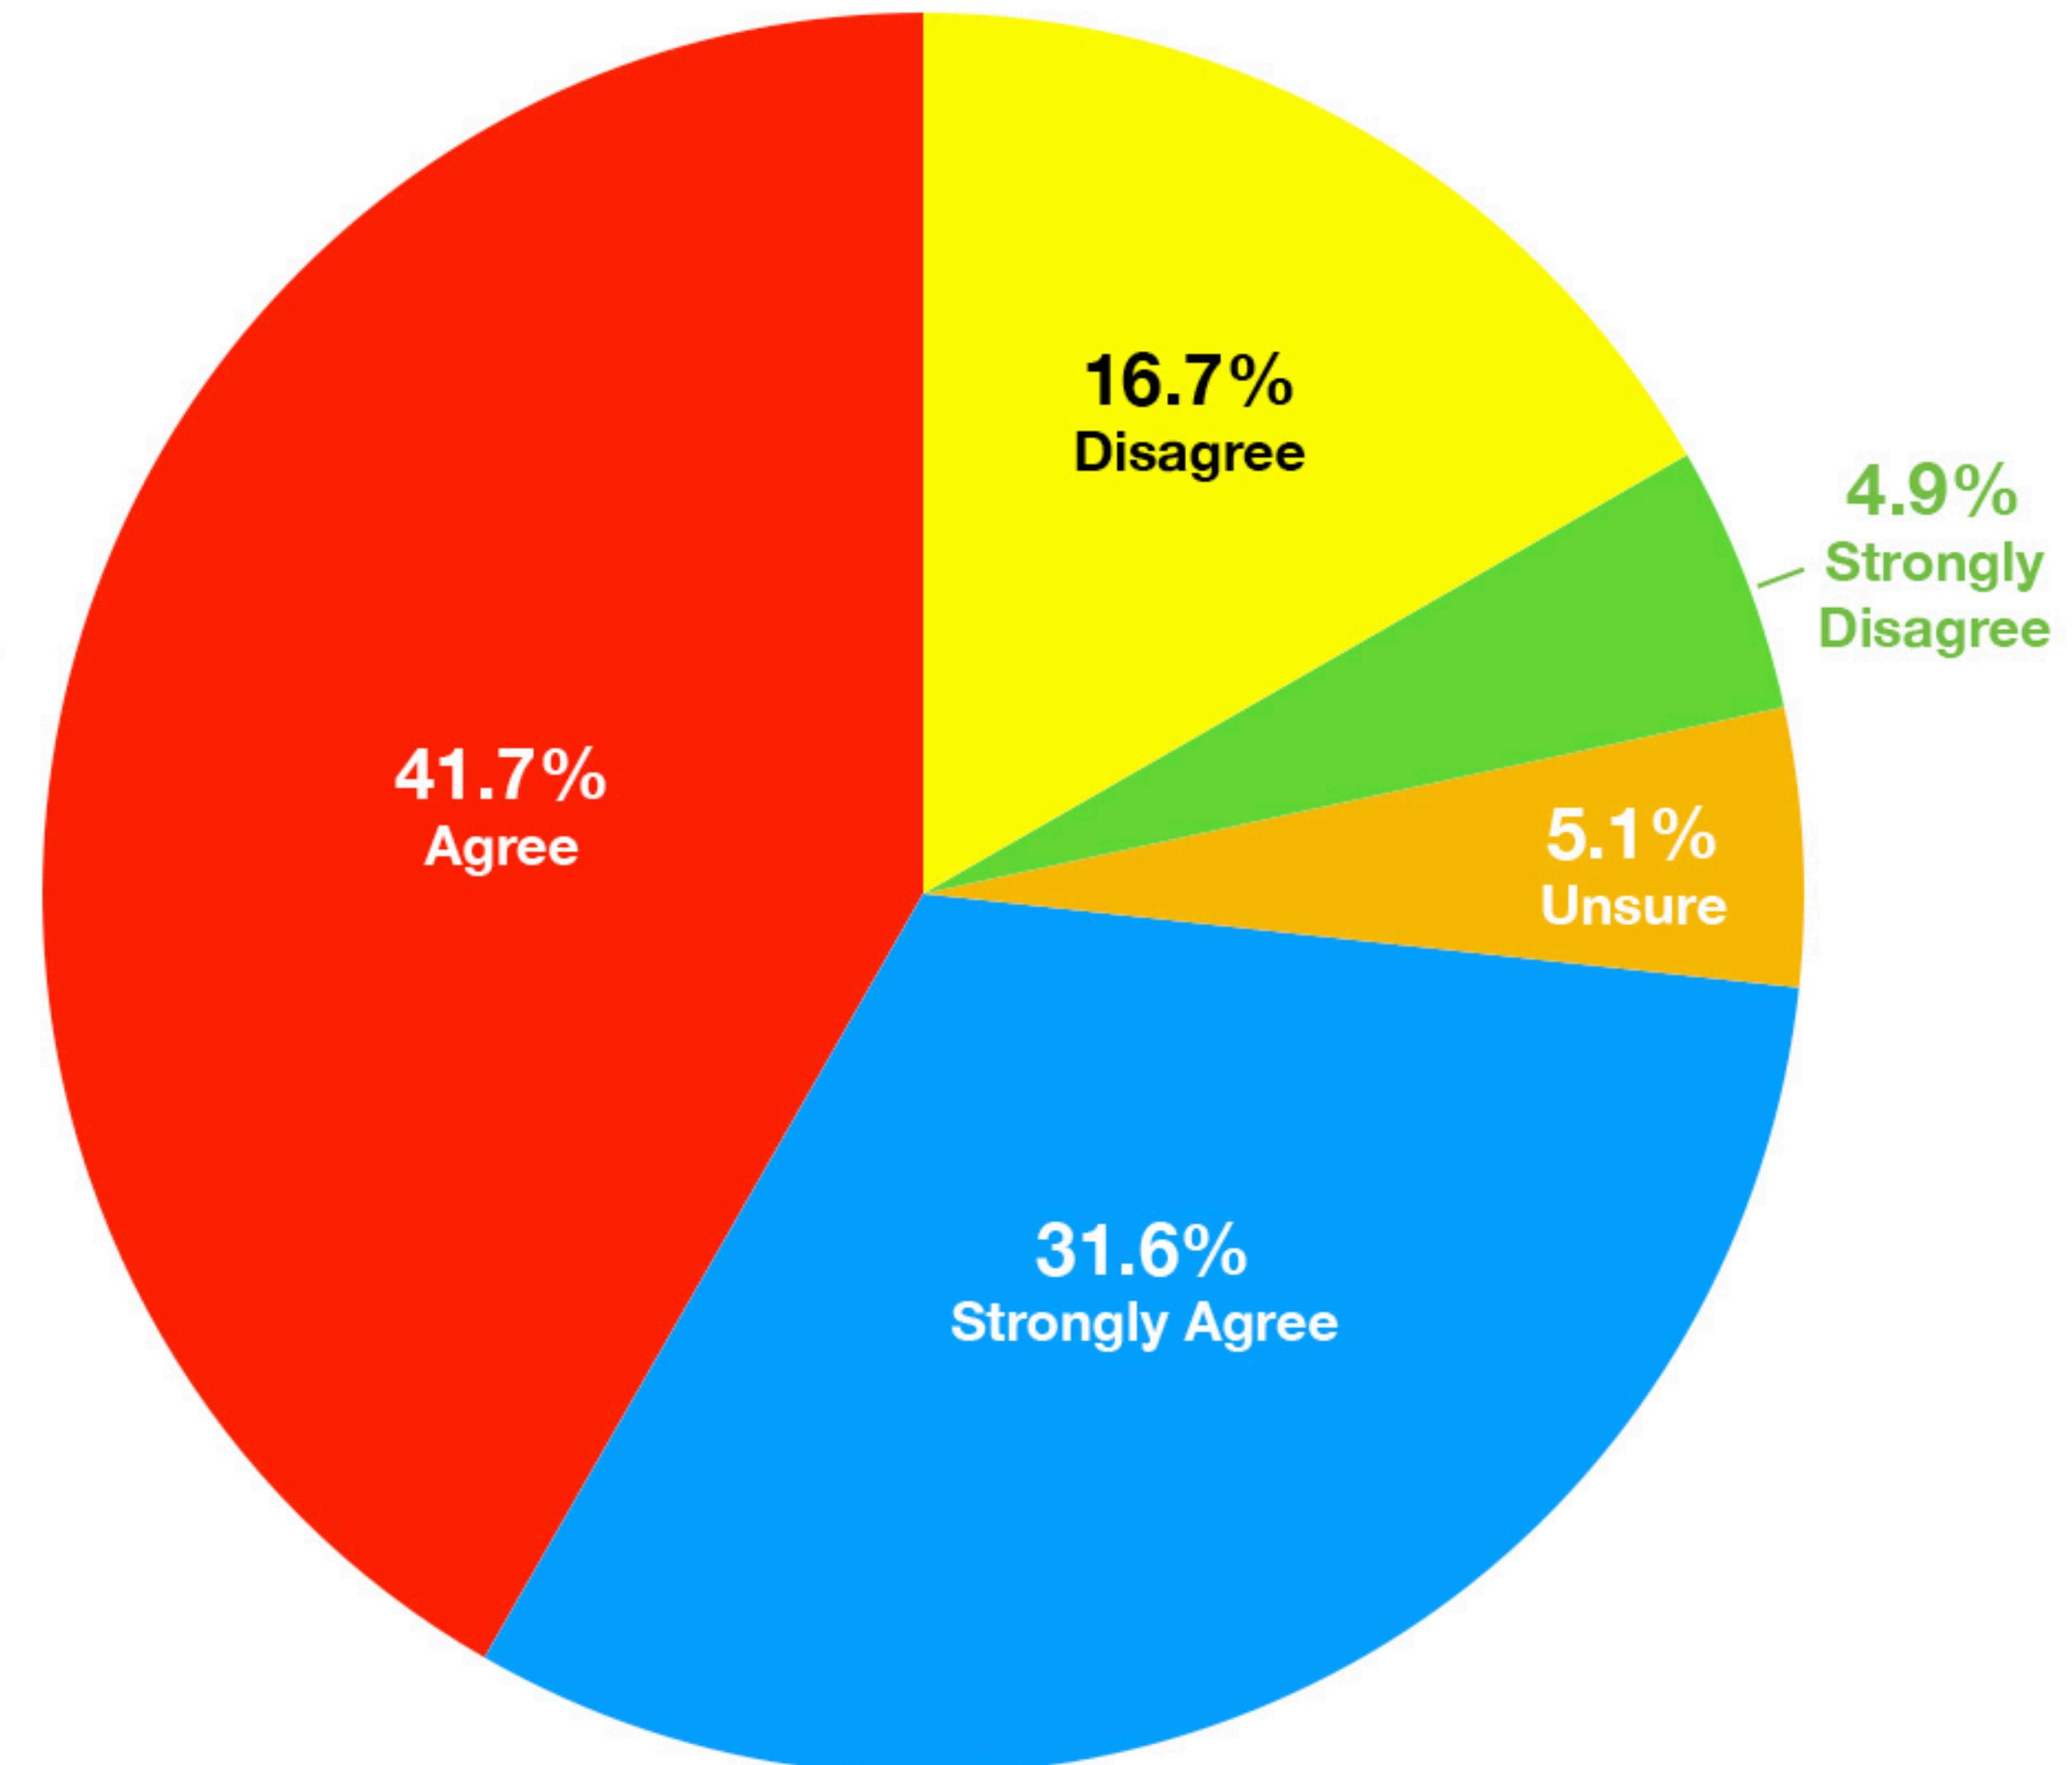

The Cooperative Program promotes unity among Southern Baptists.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

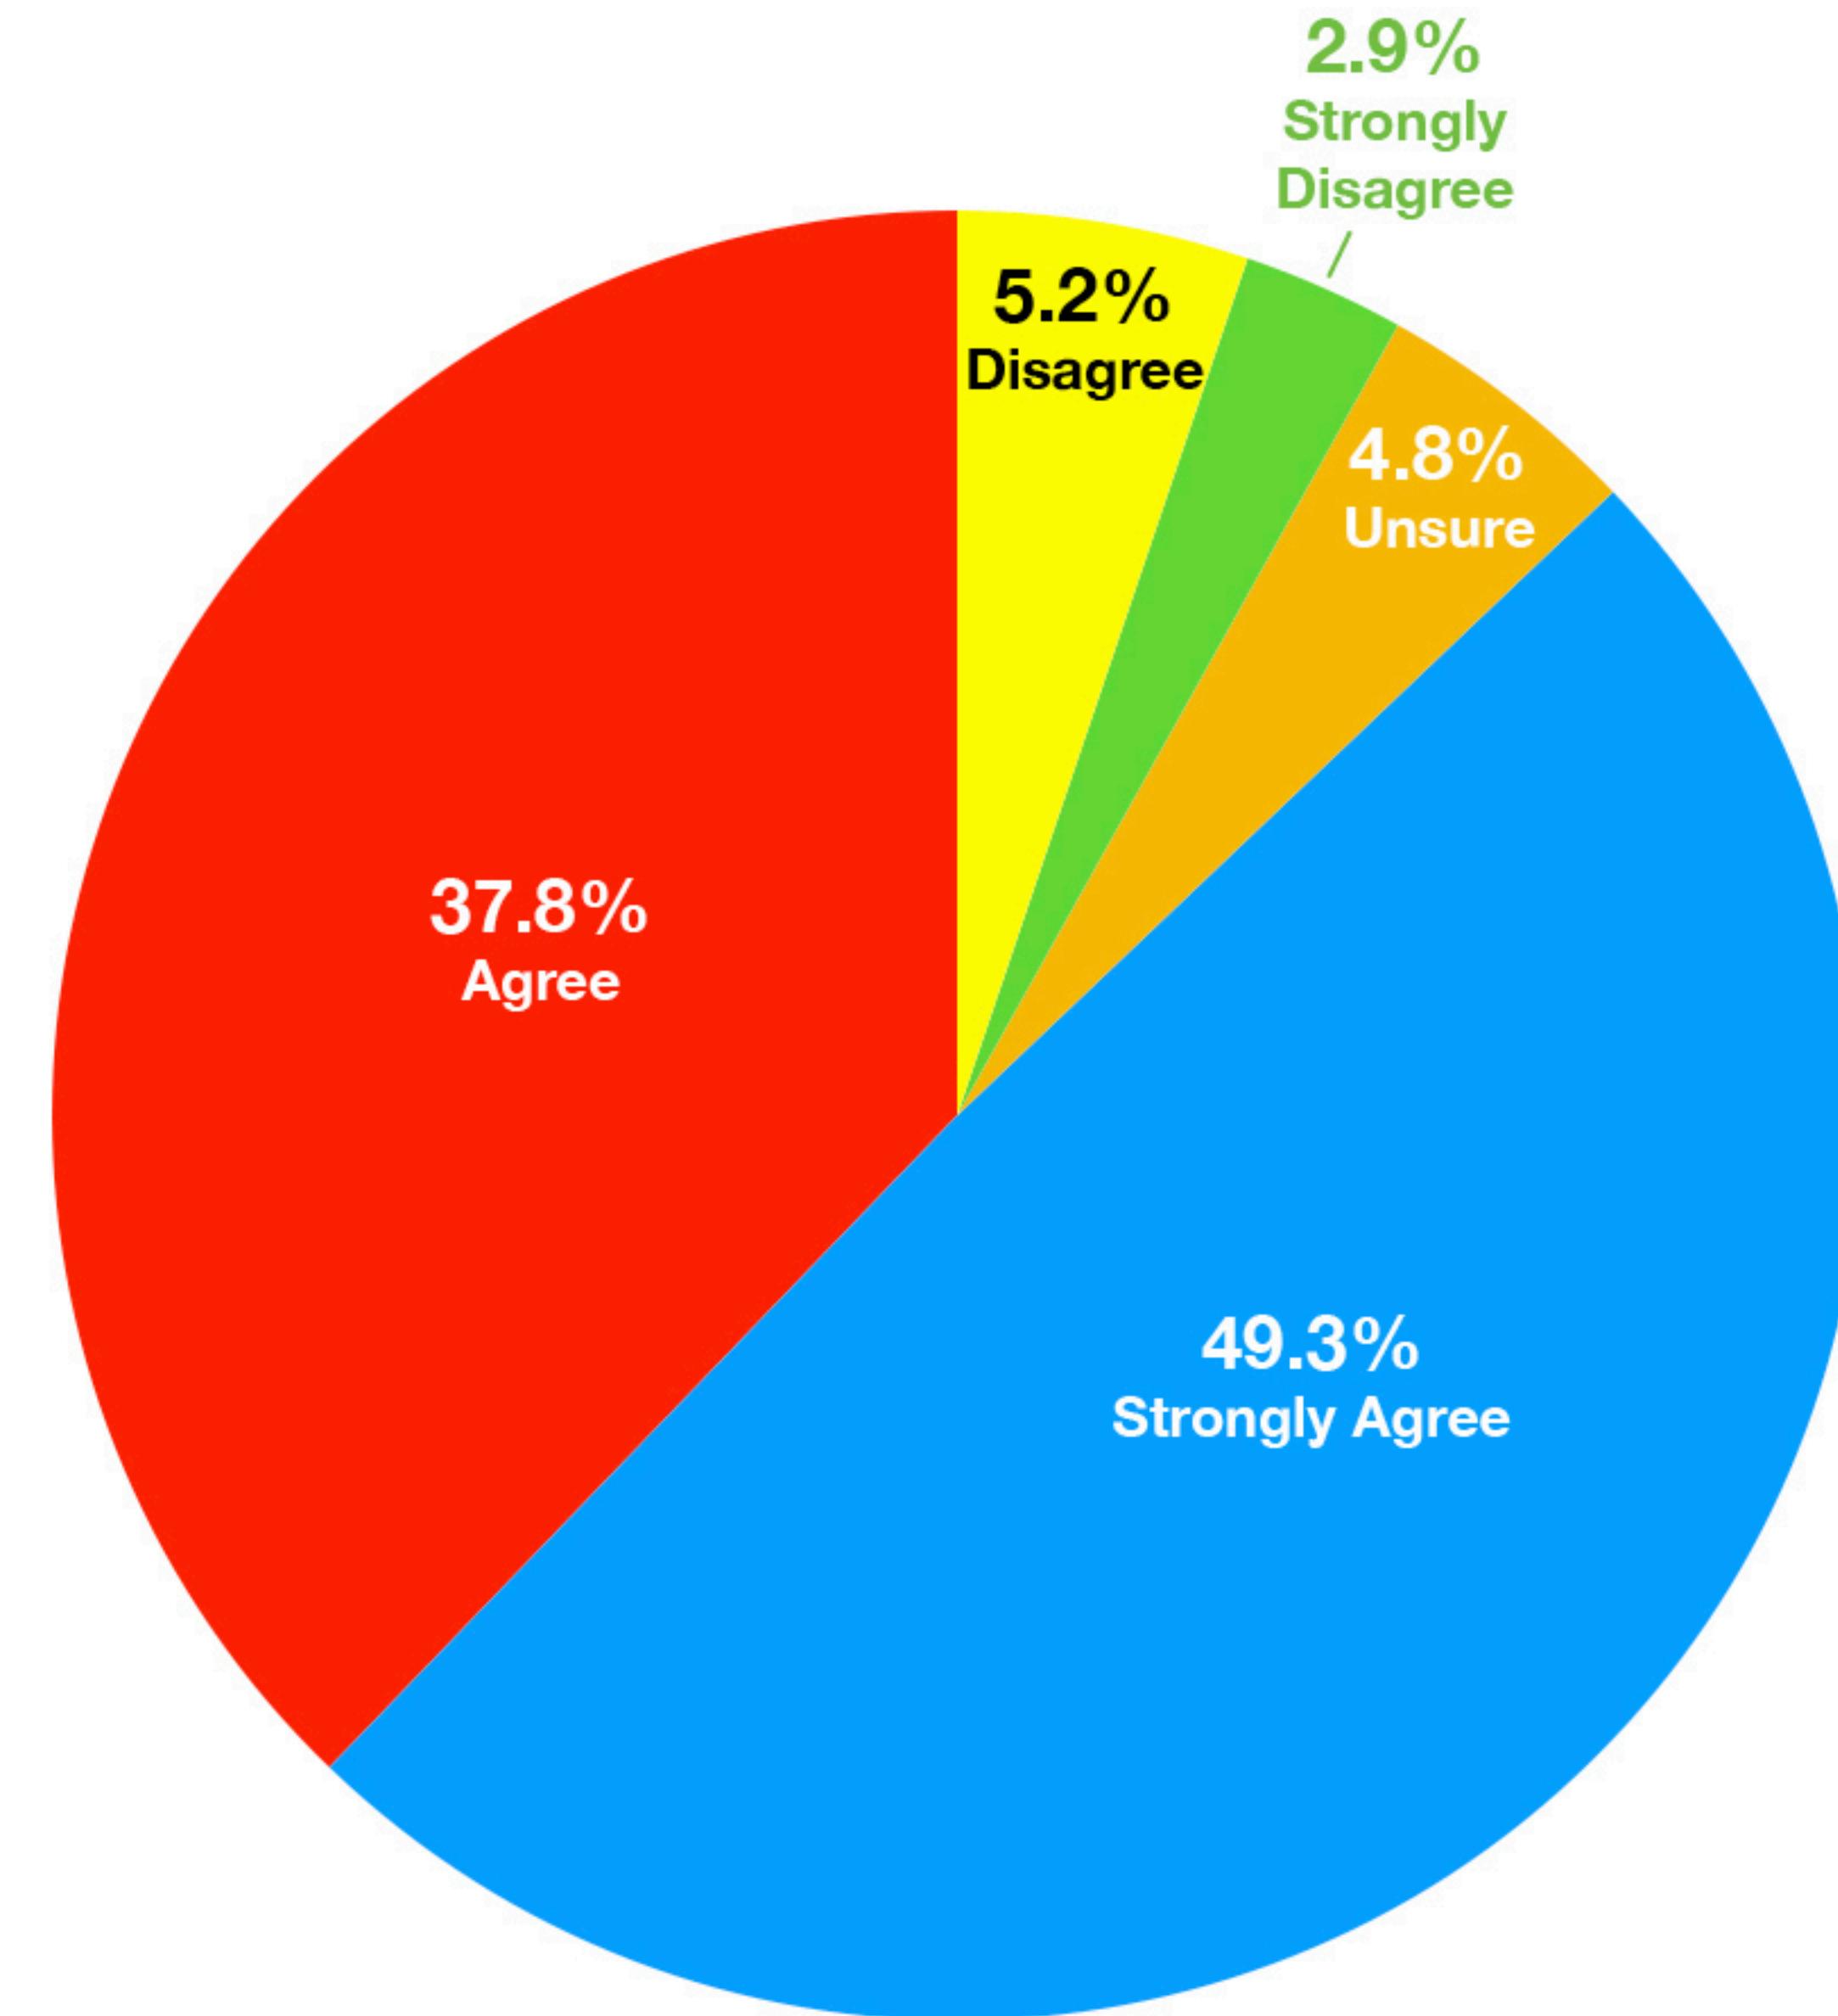

The Cooperative Program is our church's preferred method of missions giving.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

My church views the Cooperative Program
as a trustworthy way
to support missions.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

My church has reduced CP giving due to lack of confidence in the SBC.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

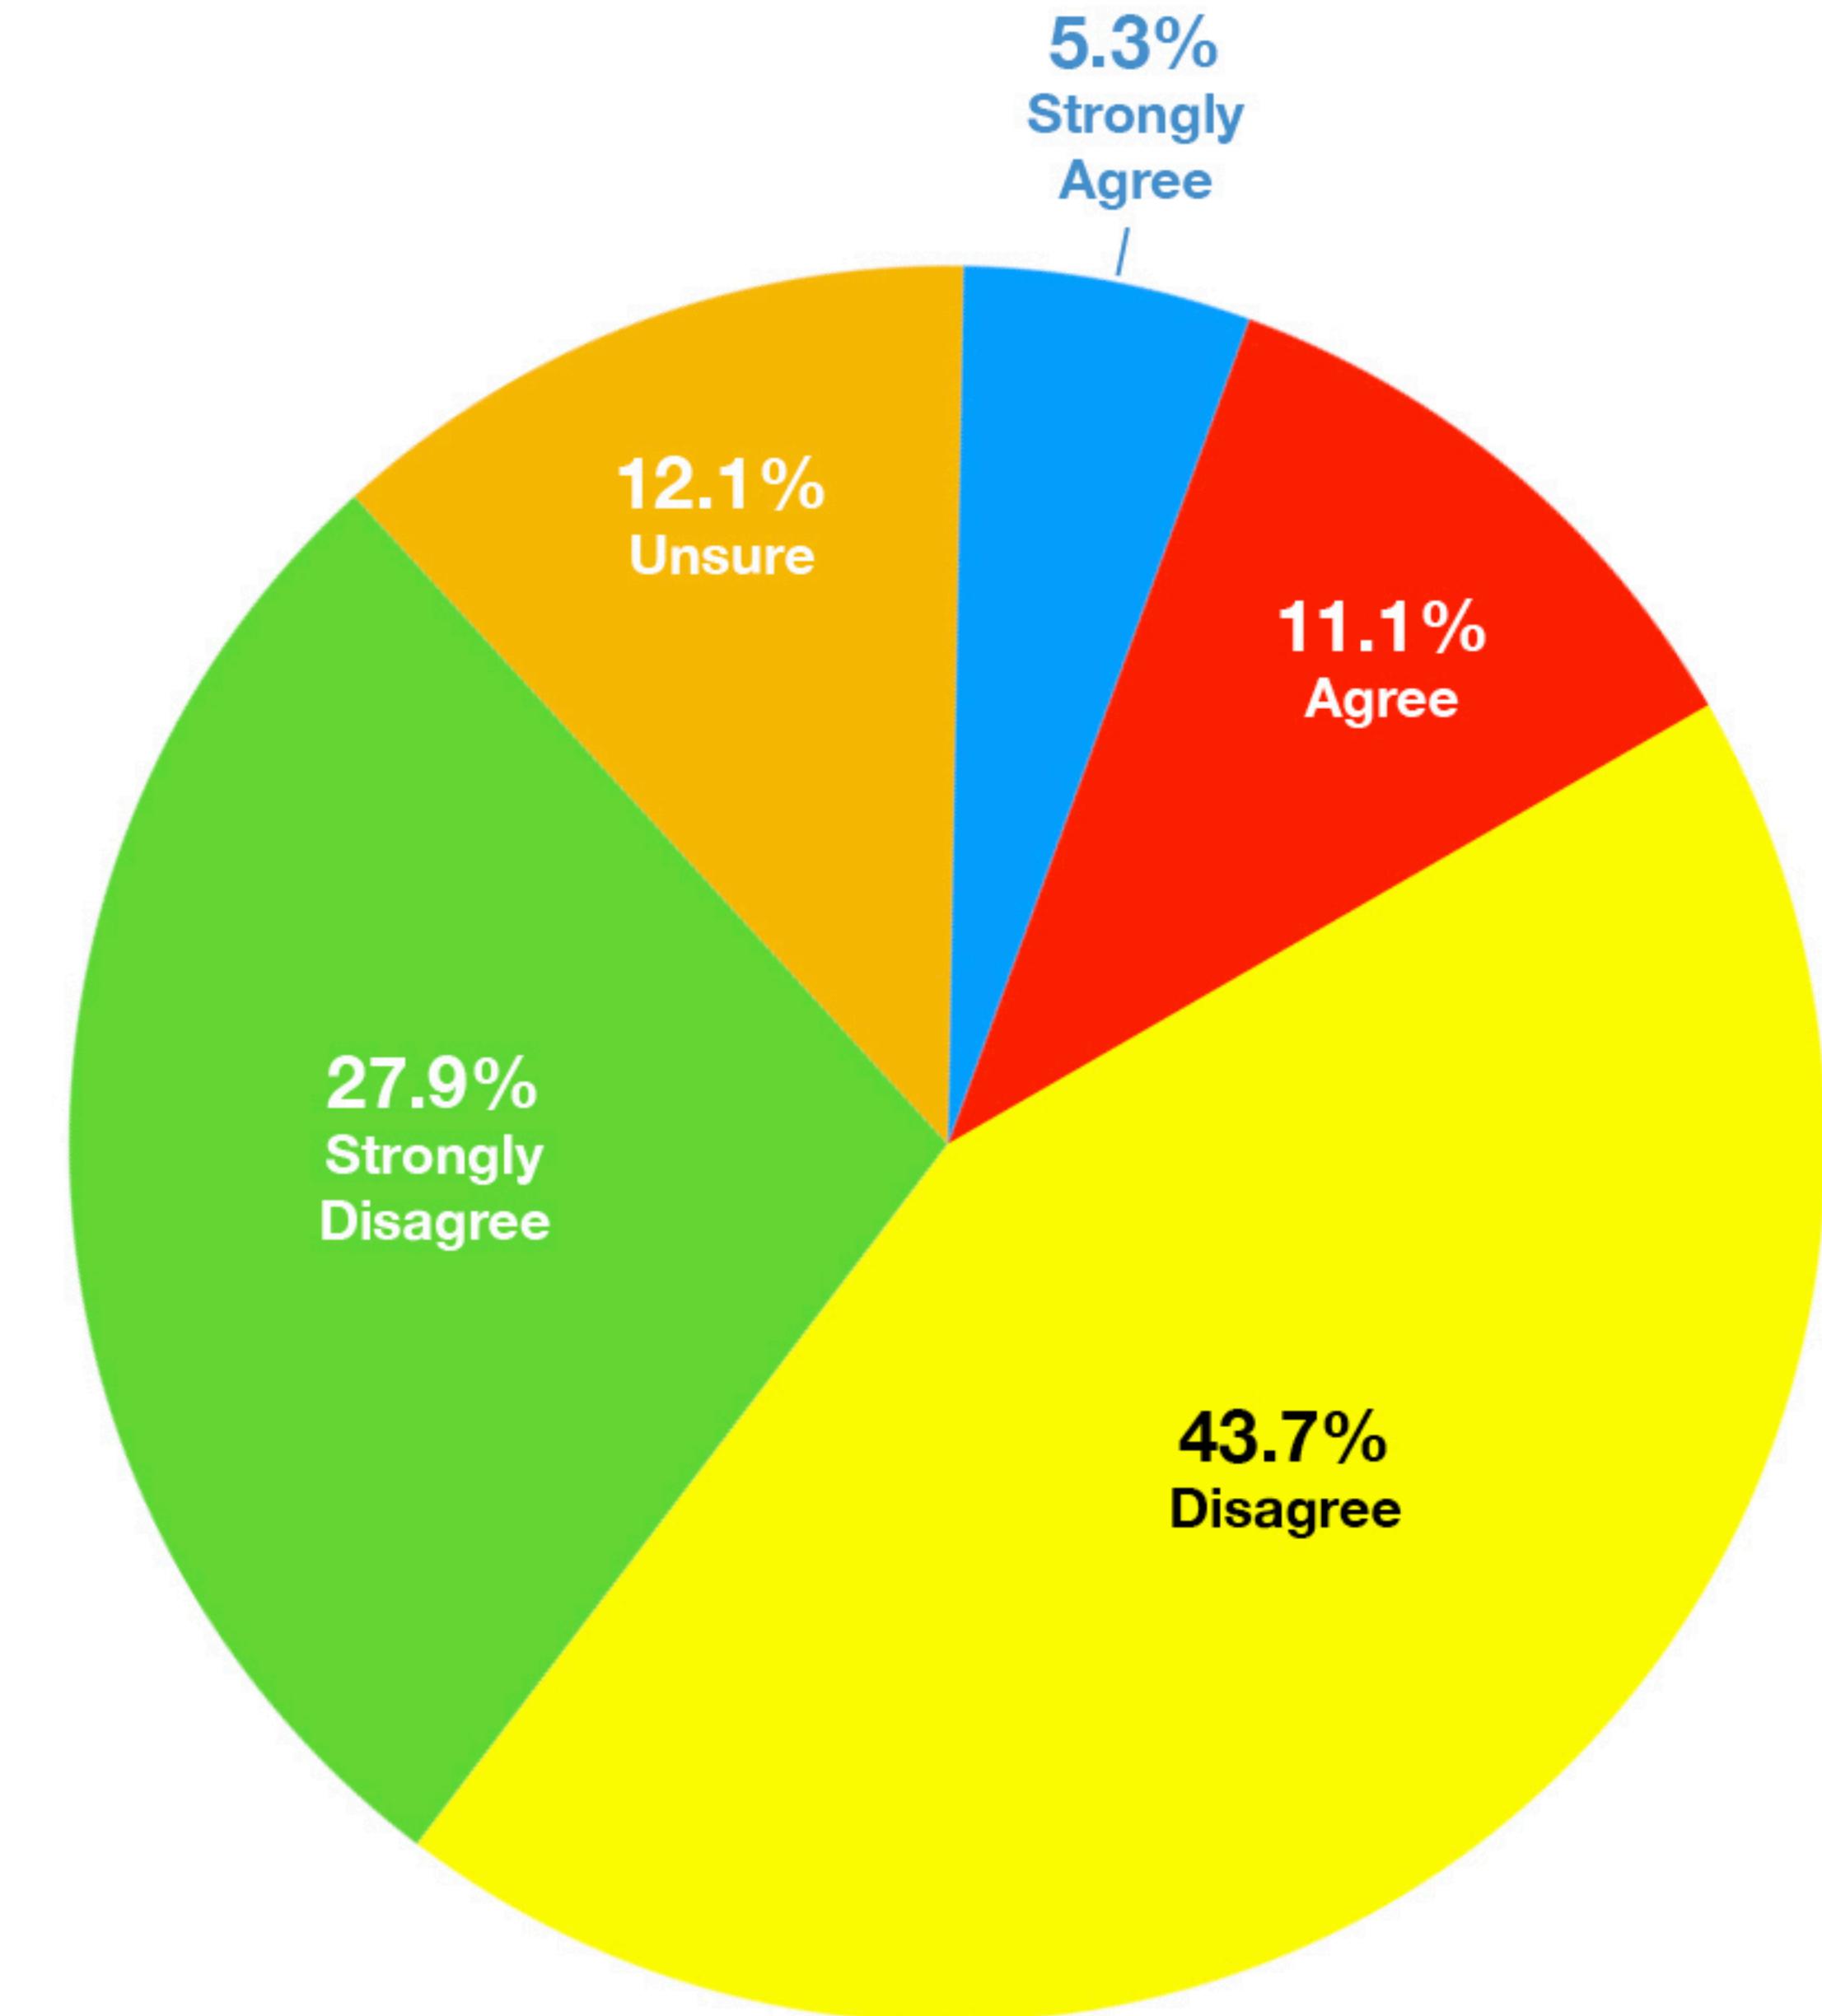

Conflict or mistrust in SBC leadership has affected my church's confidence in giving through CP.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

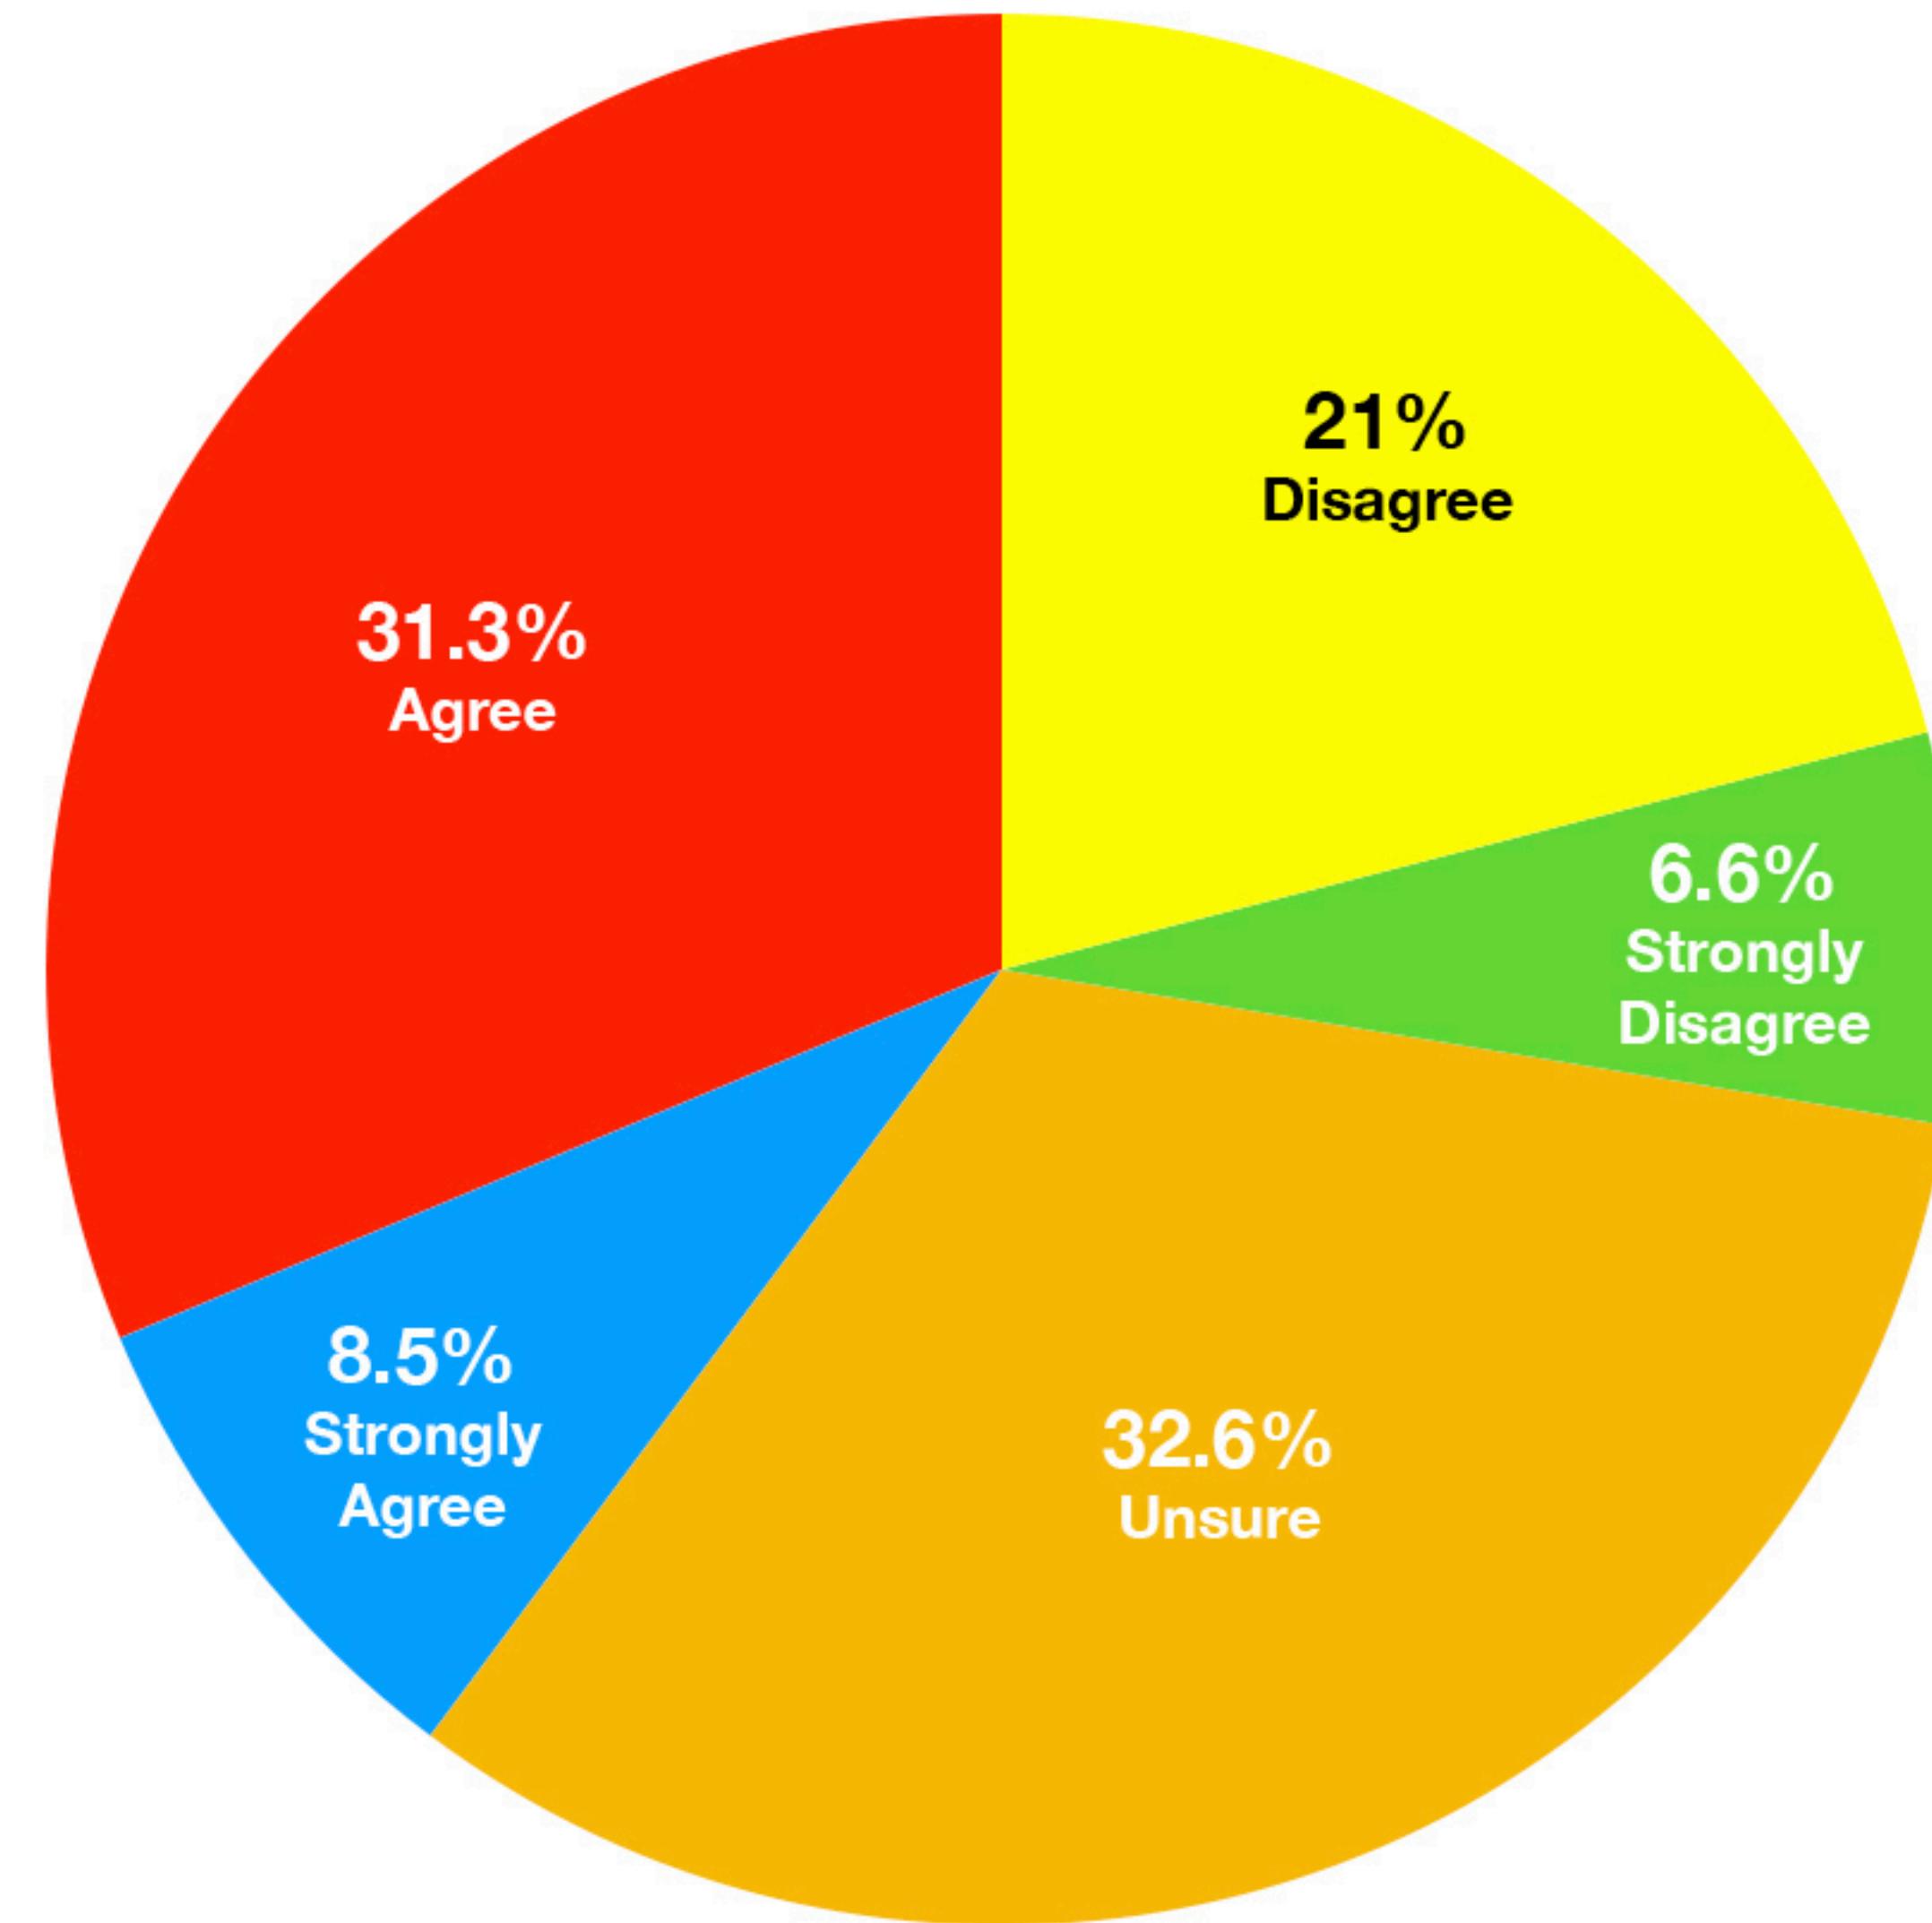

My church is considering decreasing Cooperative Program giving.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

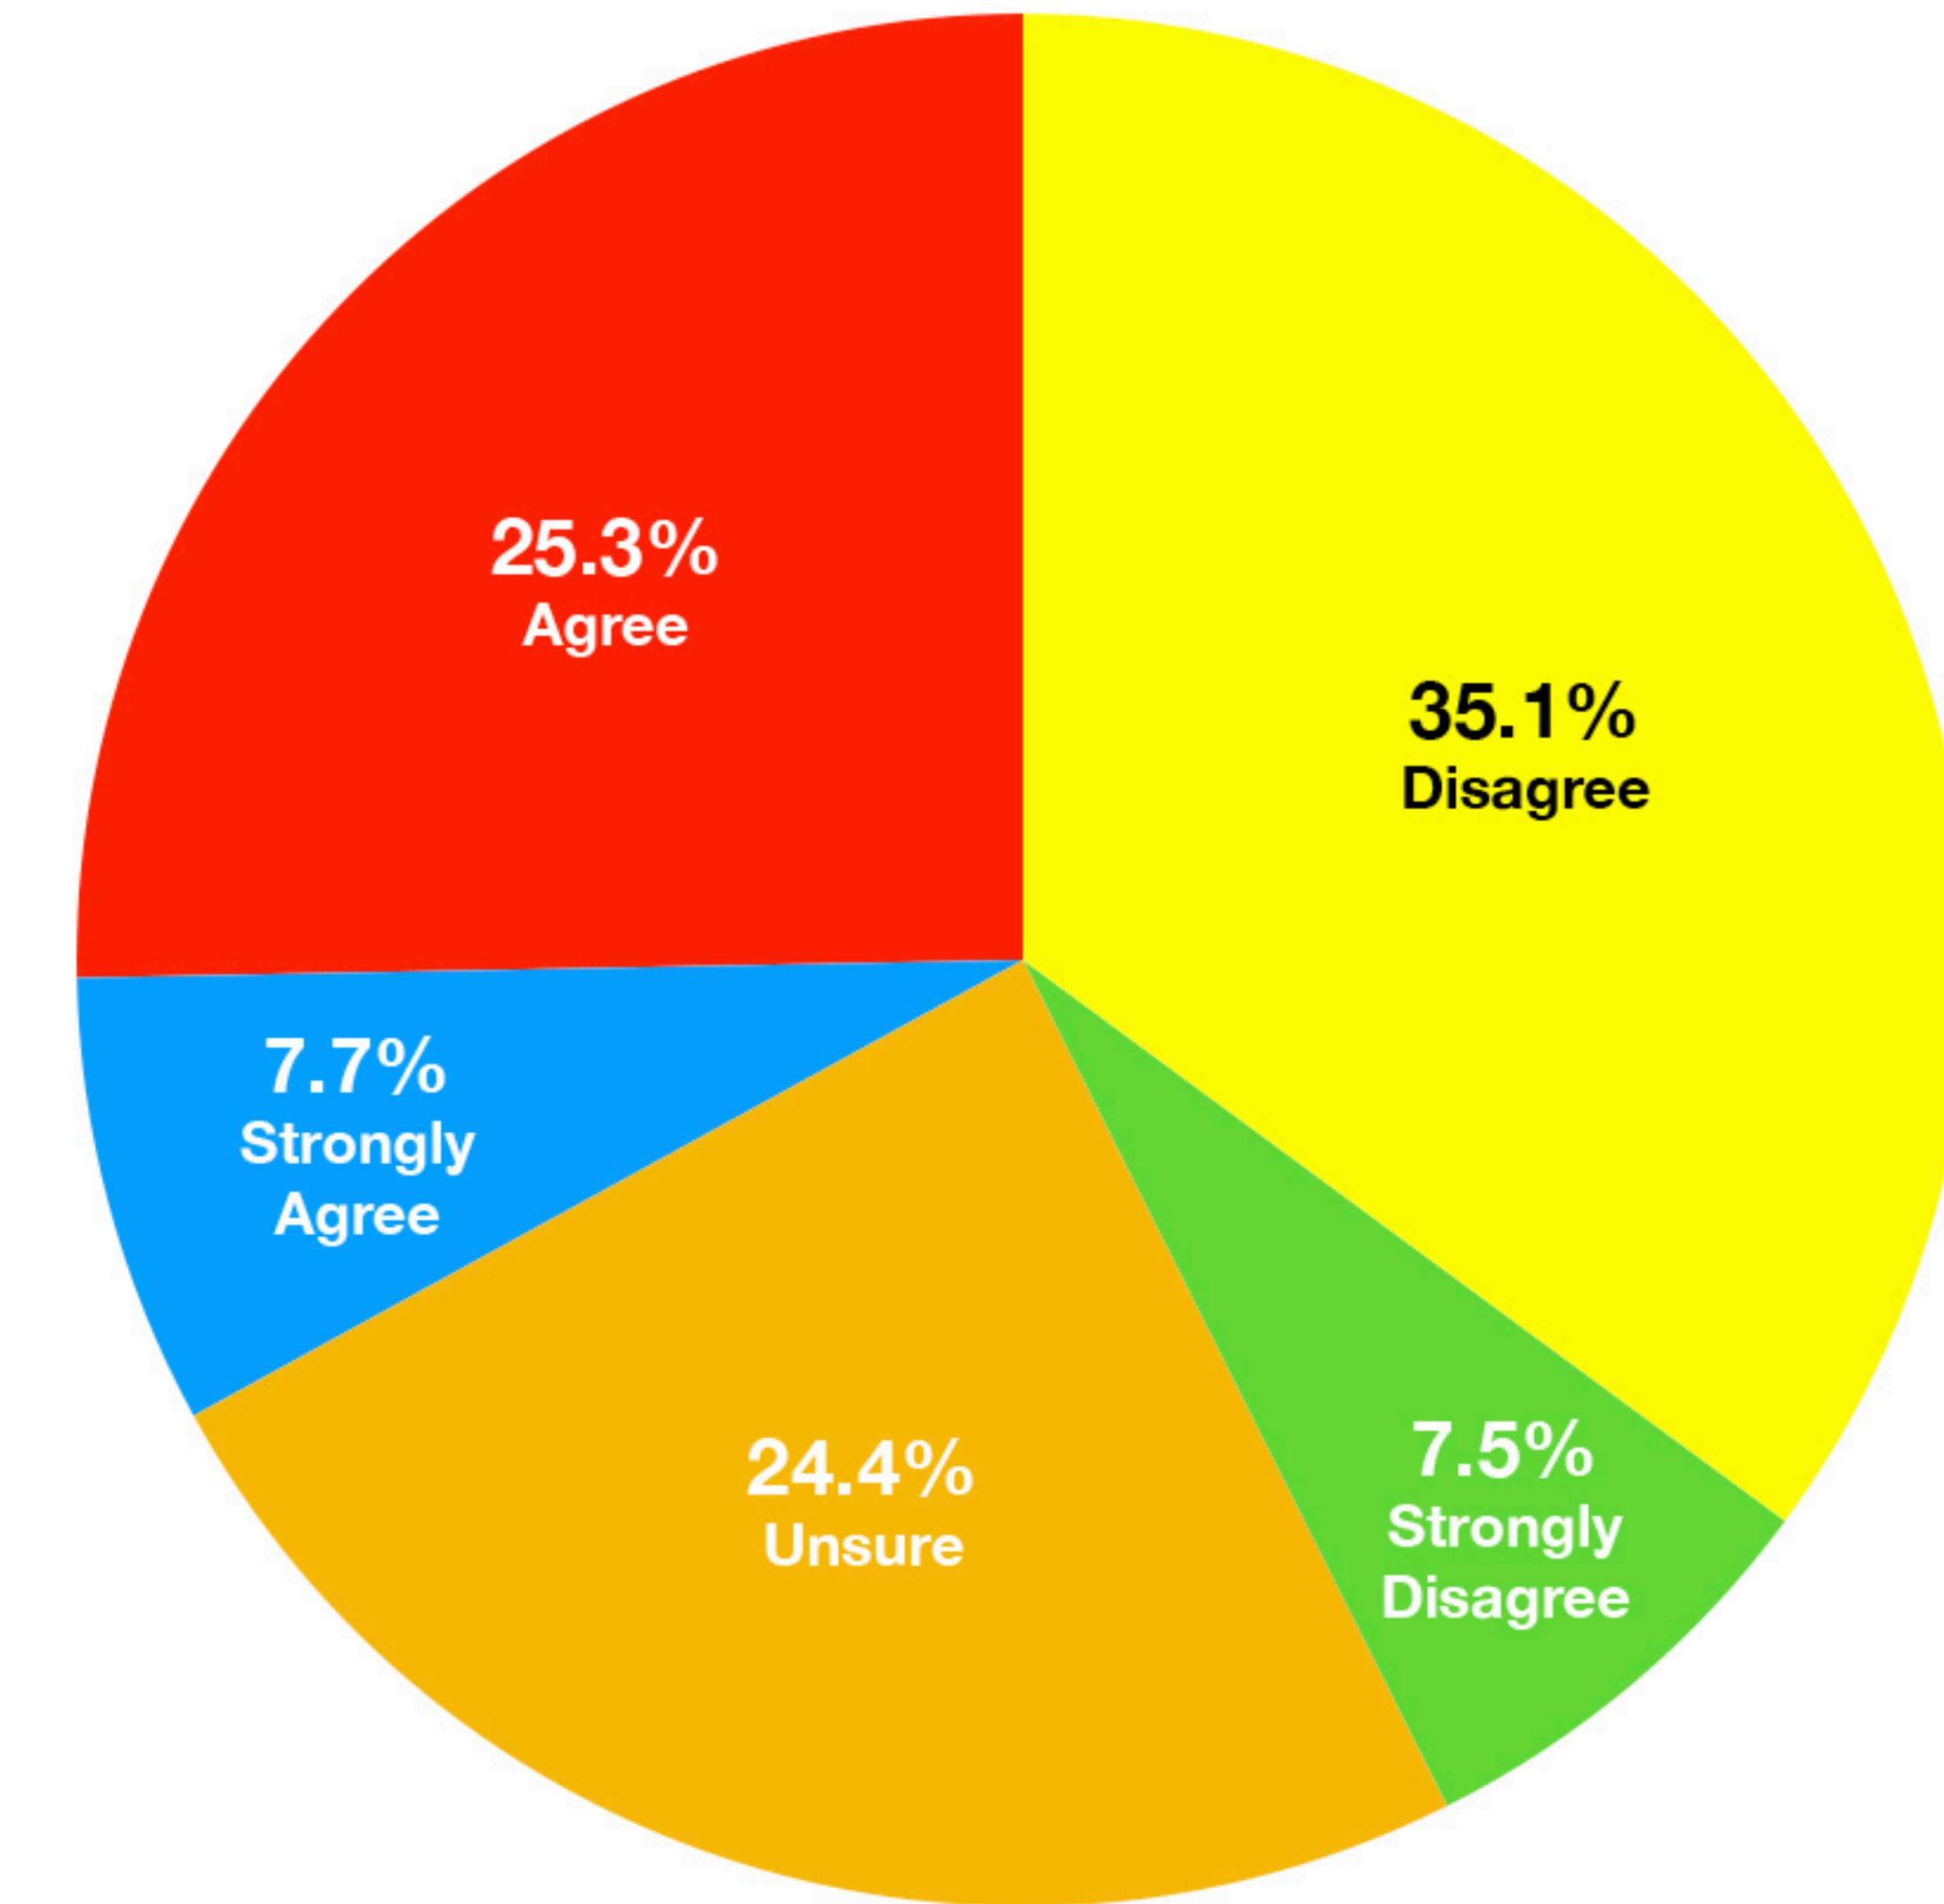

The Cooperative Program is less relevant to younger pastors.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

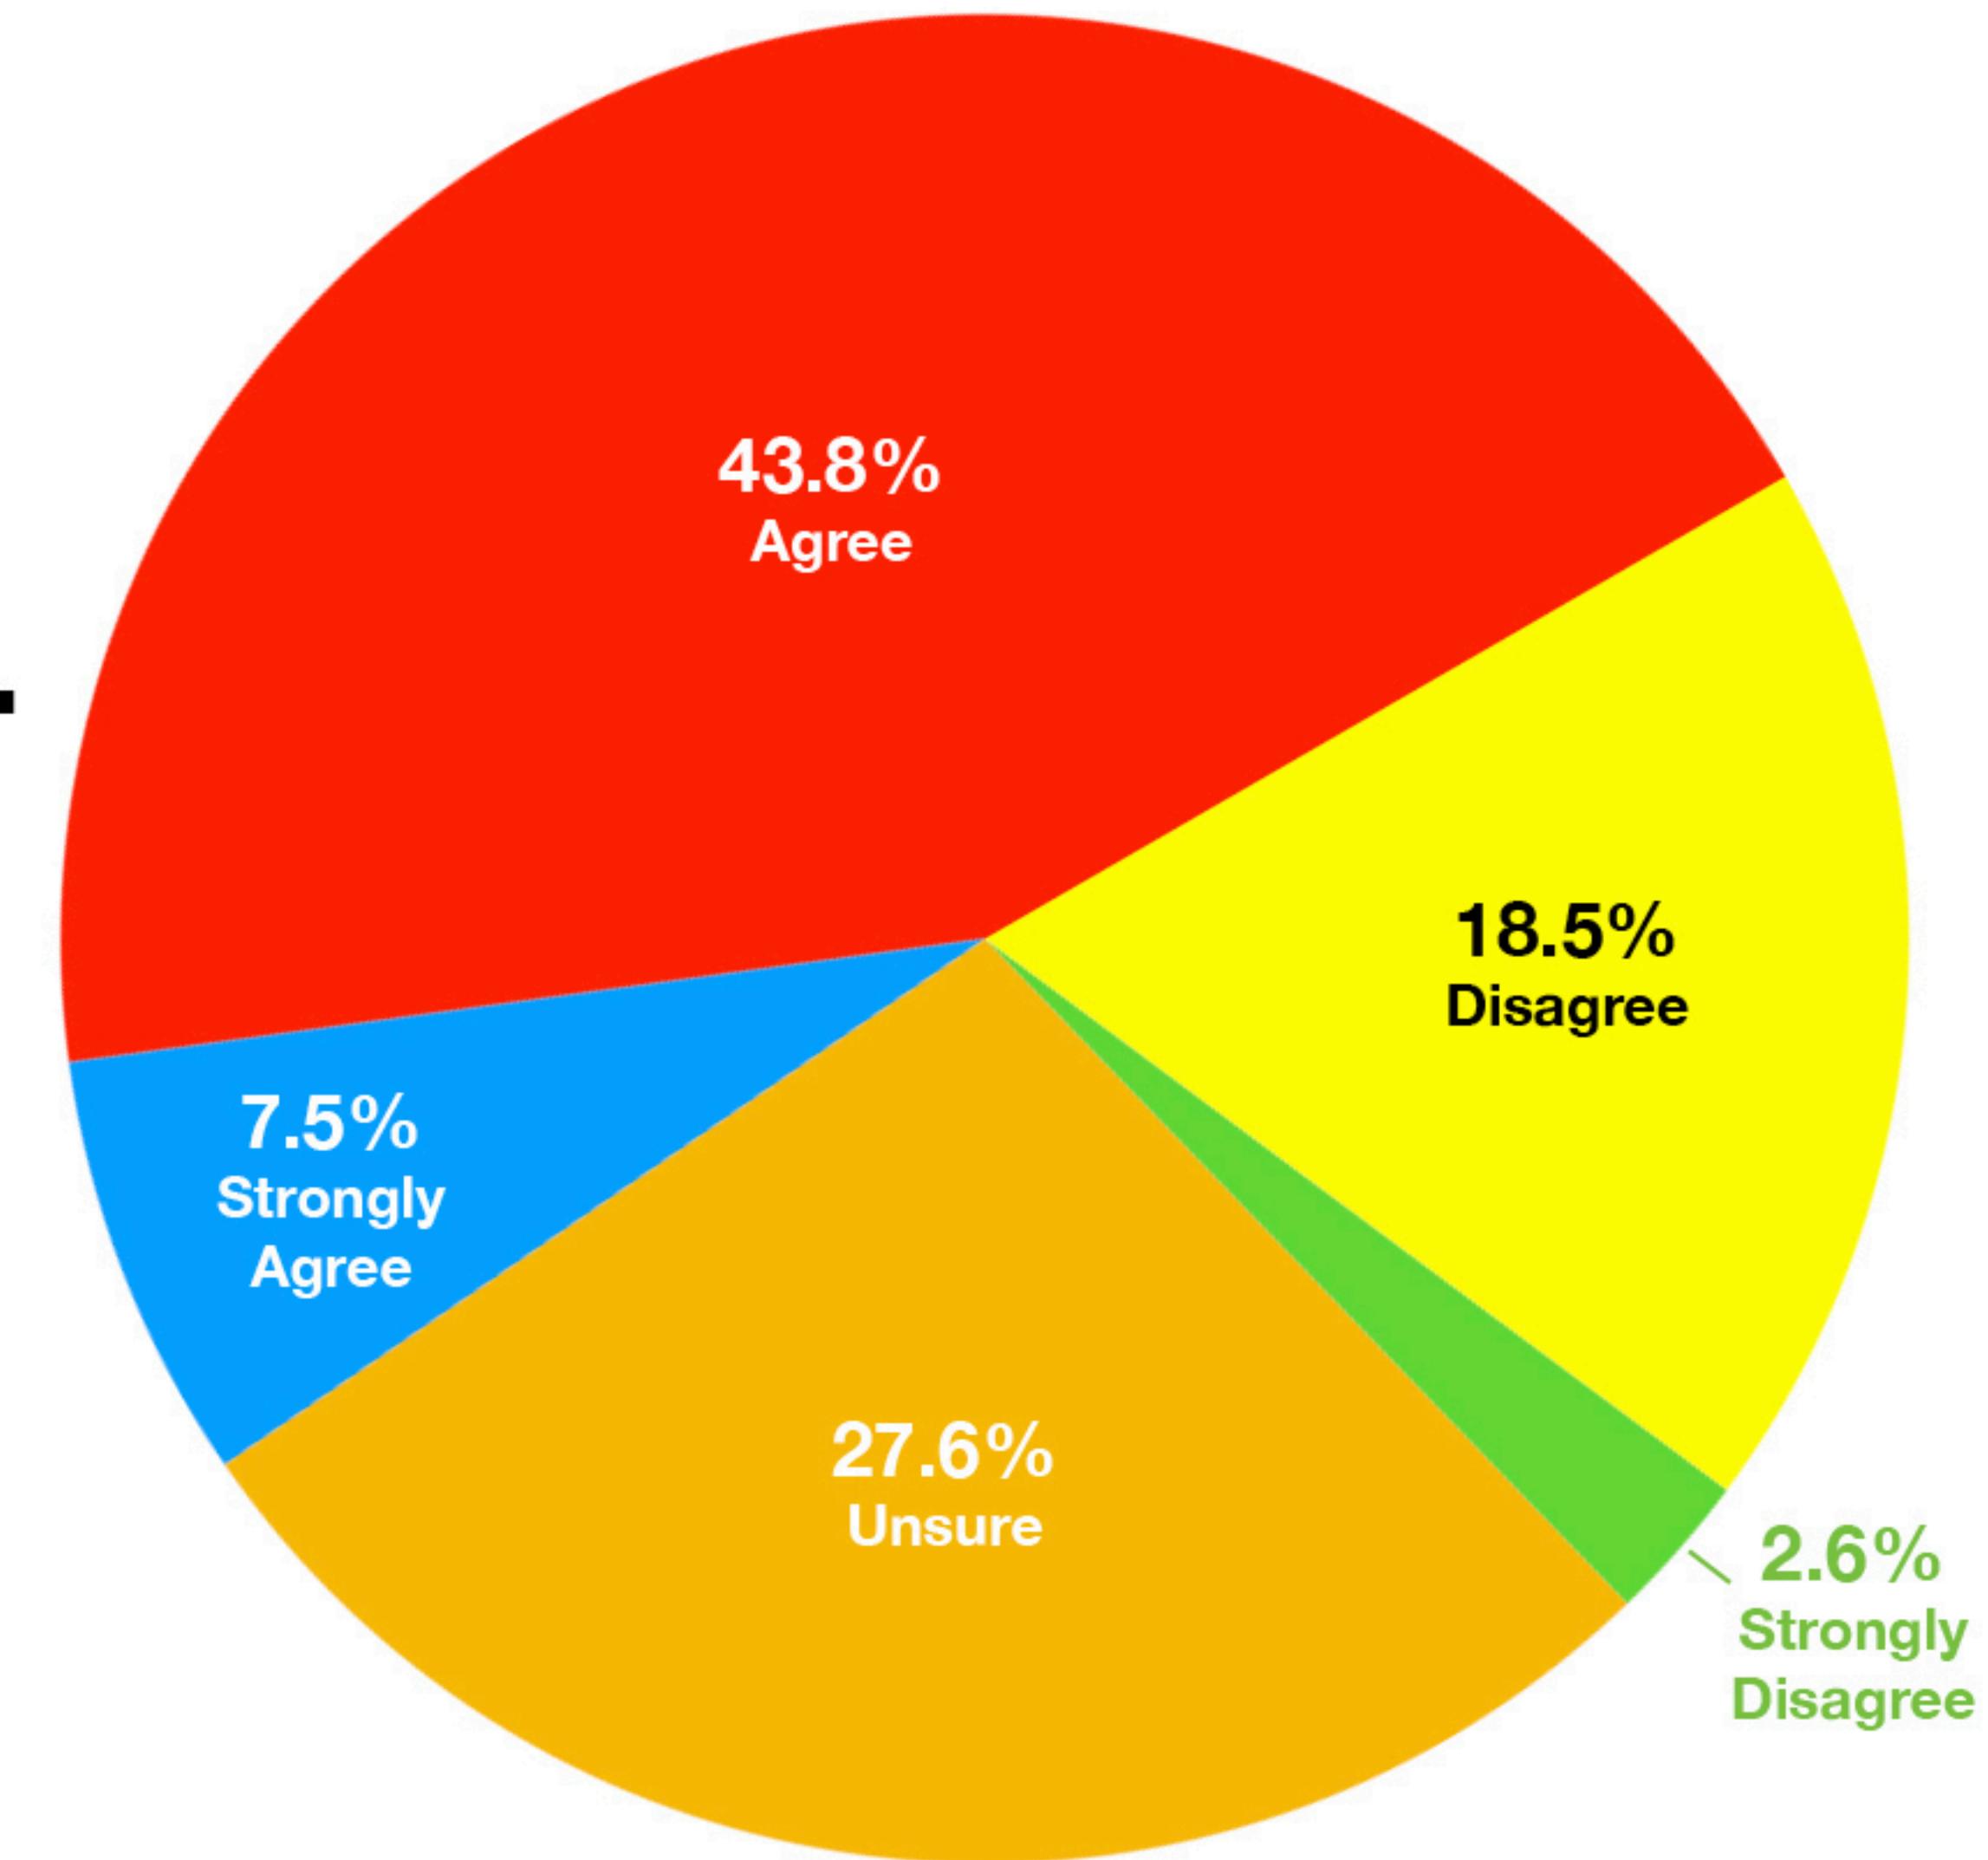

Designated giving diminishes the impact of the Cooperative Program.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

Churches are becoming less willing to cooperate financially for shared goals.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

My church is open to increasing Cooperative Program giving.

- Strongly Agree
- Agree
- Disagree
- Strongly Disagree
- Unsure

